Welcome to Chamblee

MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

For more than 100 years the Chamblee community has enjoyed an outstanding quality of life that the city has helped to promote and support. The history of Chamblee is a wonderful story of an evolving landscape. From an agricultural beginning, to Southern rail town, to the first home of Camp Gordon, and the industrial development of the 1950s, Chamblee has represented this past century’s greatest eras of progress.

Chamblee now has the opportunity to re-develop even further into a modern village while maintaining the small town charm that has lured so many here in the past and will continue to draw others in the future. The city is working hard to further create this sense of place, complete with bike and pedestrian trails, landscaped streets, and architectural designs that invite people to stroll down wide sidewalks and gather at festivals.

Located adjacent to the DeKalb Peachtree Airport, with a MARTA rail station in the center of the city, and adjoining two interstate highways, Chamblee is both easy to find and convenient to reach from anywhere in the world. With two separate annexations since 2010, the size of the city has increased substantially. This growth has provided new opportunities to further unite our community.

It is with great honor and pride that I serve as your mayor. Please let me, the council, and your city staff know of the issues that are important to you. Through these efforts to communicate we will all benefit and continue to insure that Chamblee remains the center of the universe!

Welcome to Chamblee, where it is not hard to see why our motto is “A City on the Right Track!”

– Mayor R. Eric Clarkson

CHAMBLEE HISTORY

Named for an African-American railroad worker, Chamblee's history is intertwined with three industries – dairies, railroads, and the military.

The City of Chamblee was incorporated by the Georgia legislature on August 17, 1908. It is one of ten cities within DeKalb County.

There is much discussion about the origin of the city's name. One prominent story refers to an 1885 petition for the U.S. Postal Service to establish a post office in what was then known as Roswell Junction. The U.S. Postal Service was concerned that the proposed name of Roswell Junction was too similar to the nearby City of Roswell.

The Postal Service then randomly selected the name "Chamblee" from the list of petitioners for the new post office name. The Chamblee selected was an African-American railroad worker.

Chamblee's history is intertwined with three industries - dairies, railroads, and the military. For years, Chamblee was known for its rolling hills and numerous dairies. Irvingdale and J.W. Brown are just two of the numerous dairies that made Chamblee more of a pasture than a town. The only thing that crisscrossed the pastures during the late 19th and early 20th century was the railroad. Chamblee was established at the junction of what is now the Norfolk Southern Railroad and the Roswell Railroad.

In 1917, much of Chamblee's dairy land was transformed into Camp Gordon, becoming home to 40,000 military personnel. Almost overnight, forty new stores, three theaters, two hotels, and a bowling alley were built to cater to this new population.

After World War I, Camp Gordon was closed, but then reopened in 1941 as a Navy Flight Training Center. After World War II, the city experienced a growth in its industrial areas, largely based on the opening of the General Motors plant in neighboring Doraville. Large corporations such as Frito-Lay, Kodak, and General Electric built plants along the newly constructed Peachtree Industrial Boulevard. These corporations provided a strong tax base and a source of employment for more than thirty years.

In the 1980s, Chamblee began to see its fabric change dramatically. Many large manufacturing sites downsized or closed. The city was faced with a dwindling tax base and the loss of population as young workers followed jobs to the fast-growing northern suburbs. At the same time, refugees and immigrants, drawn to the employment potential of metro Atlanta and the affordable housing found in Chamblee, began repopulating many neighborhoods along Buford Highway.

The 1990 census dramatically outlined the change in demographics for Chamblee. Seeing this shift in population as a positive step, the city council developed new zoning that would address the special needs of such a diverse community. The International Village overlay was the first zoning in metro Atlanta that allowed for mixed-use development and championed livable, pedestrian-friendly neighborhoods. The city was rewarded for its efforts by multi-million dollar redevelopment projects along Buford Highway and throughout the designated International Village area. At the same time, the city moved to protect its historic town center by designating a central business district.

As Chamblee moves into the 21st century, its history is being written in a multitude of languages. From its foundation as a southern rail town, its people have built a progressive urban city that is eagerly awaiting its next transformation.

PUBLIC WORKS

A Public Works team picks up yard trimmings, part of curbside garbage collection services.

Public Works Department

Monday - Friday • 7 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Working Hard for a Clean City

Chamblee's Public Works Department provides essential services like waste disposal, recycling service, storm water system maintenance, street cleaning and road maintenance, animal control, and vehicle and building maintenance.

Trash and Recycling

Keeping the City of Chamblee clean has never been simpler now that trash and recycling pickup is on the same day!

Place your roll carts outside of fences or enclosures at the point nearest to, but not on, the public street or public sidewalk by 7 a.m. on your pickup day. The Public Works Department will not pick up garbage which has not been placed in specified areas.

Do I need to bag my garbage?

Yes. All garbage must be bagged and securely tied prior to being placed inside the cart. This will keep the cart clean, minimize odors and insects, and prevent loose material from falling into the street during collection.

Do I need to bag or separate my recycling?

No, you do not need to bag or separate recyclables. Chamblee Sanitation provides single-stream recycling to its residents. Single-stream means that the resident does not have to sort the recycled materials. Residents may place all acceptable recyclable materials in a single container for pickup.

What can be recycled?

Paper, metal, and plastic materials. Hazardous materials like solvents and automobile fluids are not recyclable, unfortunately, due to low market rates. Glass is no longer accepted. Acceptable recycling materials are determined by recycling carrier. For a full list visit chambleega.gov/recycling.

Visit the Public Works webpage at chambleega.gov/sanitationmap for a detailed list of weekly trash and recycling pick-up days by address.

What if I don't have a sanitation roll cart?

To request garbage and recycle roll carts call the Public Works Department at 770-986-5019 or apply for one at chambleega.gov/recycling.

Yard Waste

It is unlawful to mix yard trimmings with garbage or leaves within the city. You may paper bag your leaves and yard trimmings, or place them neatly at your curbside (not in the street) for collection. The city's vacuum truck will suck up the leaves. Put limbs and sticks in a separate pile.

Electronics Recycling Program

Third Saturday of each month 8 a.m. - Noon
Chamblee is committed to reducing landfill use and promoting responsible re-use of electronic waste. Electronic waste may be brought to the Public Works facility for proper disposal on the third Saturday of each month only.

Visit chambleega.gov/electronicsrecycling for a full list of accepted electronics or to sign up for event reminders.

We accept computers, batteries, keyboards, cables, small appliances, cell phones, lawn equipment, power tools, hard drives (we do not erase your hard drives), and flat panel TV's only.

Special Pickups

Construction debris, trees, dirt, rock, concrete, over-sized tree limbs, and other large items are considered a special pickup. A charge applies to items requiring special pickup by the Chamblee

Public Works Department. Call the Public Works Department or visit chambleega.gov for more information, or call to schedule a pickup.

Roads and Walkways

Chamblee Public Works Roads and Walkways Division consists of two groups that together maintain the city's roadways, curbs, gutters, and sidewalks and beautify the right-of-way.

The right-of-way maintenance group performs routine grass cutting and edging, brush and tree trimming, weed control, and herbicide spraying. This group is also responsible for trash pick-up along city roadways and cleans the roadways and curbs with the street sweeper.

The transportation group is responsible for roadway paving, patching, and pothole repair; traffic sign installation; traffic signal maintenance and repair; sidewalk installation and repair; and curb and gutter installation and repair. The transportation group performs traffic counts for speed study and traffic calming studies.

Stormwater

The Chamblee crew works jointly with DeKalb County for the maintenance of Chamblee's stormwater system. The crew takes care of small repairs that happen frequently such as manhole/storm drain inlet repairs. They also fill out informational worksheets whenever stormwater maintenance is completed, logging the date, location, problem, and action taken. To report a stormwater problem, call 770-986-5019.

ANIMAL CONTROL

Common animal control concerns include roaming animals, deceased pets, wild animals, animal bites, animal cruelty, lost and found animals, and barking dogs. If you would like to rent a trap, dispose of a deceased animal, have us pick up an animal, or pick up your pet from our facility, call Public Works at 770-986-5019. A nominal fee for trap and disposal services may apply.

Leashes

Pet owners are responsible for restraining animals that may pose a threat to others. Dangerous animals should wear muzzles to prevent biting and be leashed to prevent escape. Leashes should be no longer than six feet.

Pet Collars

Dog and cat owners must vaccinate any pet three months and older against rabies. Once a licensed veterinarian has vaccinated your pet, attach the rabies inoculation tag to your pet's collar. Your pet must wear the pet collar and inoculation tag at all times.

Loose Animals

No animal is allowed to run unattended on the streets of the city. Furthermore, they are not allowed to roam onto other people's property without the property owner's permission.

Household Pet Limit

Residents may keep three household pets per home, unless running a kennel with a valid business license.

Use the Chamblee Connect app to report any animal control issues.
